

NEW PLAN TO REMOVE LAND RESTRICTIONS

Present Method of Selling and Leasing Creek Nation Tracts Is Unpopular.

APPEAL TO MR. HITCHCOCK.

Secretary of Interior Asked to Send Representative to Indian Territory on Tour of Inspection.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Washington, I. T., Jan. 2. The movement to secure the removal of the restrictions from the sale and lease of lands in the Creek Nation has taken a very peculiar turn, and one that seems likely to attract the attention of Secretary Hitchcock.

The committee appointed for the purpose of getting the necessary data in this work have notified Mr. Hitchcock, that beginning January 5, the committee will begin taking depositions from the prominent citizens in all the larger towns of the Nation relative to the unpopular method of selling and leasing land now in vogue. They also ask that he have a representative on the ground to assist in taking the depositions, and that the committee and the representatives of the Secretary have the power to cross-examine the witnesses, all of which must be done under oath.

The committee at a meeting to-day decided that the old system of sending a delegation to Washington with a petition, even though it was signed by every citizen in the Nation, was a waste of time and money. They have decided to take the matter into their own hands, and to have a representative present at the removal of the restrictions, and to have the most potent reason for asking the Secretary to have a representative present is that when the depositions are presented to Congress, by the committee, they may say that the evidence thus gained was given in the presence of a representative of the department, and that the department had not yet taken care of the work.

SEVERED NOTICE ON SECRETARY.
The fact that they have served notice on the Secretary and asked him to have a representative present with full liberty to ask any questions he may see fit has caused a stir in official circles in the Territory, where departmental investigations have become not an uncommon thing. The chairman of the committee for the removal of the restrictions says that the most potent reason for asking the Secretary to have a representative present is that when the depositions are presented to Congress, by the committee, they may say that the evidence thus gained was given in the presence of a representative of the department, and that the department had not yet taken care of the work.

This will not give the advocates of the present system an opportunity to say that it was a gun-shy campaign. The advocates of the removal of all restrictions are willing to concede that there is an element among the full-blood and ignorant class of aborigines who would oppose the removal of restrictions, but they claim that these persons are not sufficiently informed as to what the present plan means.

The Indian agent who has charge of the sale that have been made said this morning that he believed the present system of selling lands is the best that could be devised under the circumstances, and that he further believed that as the advocates of the removal of restrictions are familiar with the mode of procedure pertaining to a sale they would admit the wisdom of the plan. He has asked for three additional land appraisers and a larger clerical force to take care of the work.

He thinks as soon as this additional force is put to work an average of 125 tracts of land per week can be handled.

CHIEF PORTER'S POSITION.
Chief Porter, at the last meeting of the council, advised the Indians that the present system was the best that could be had for the full-bloods, and advised them to take advantage of every precaution that had been offered them.

A. P. Murphy, national attorney for the Creek, is of the opinion that the present rules are the best that can be had, if there are to be any restrictions at all. He bases his opinion on the fact that the same system has been used to advantage in the case of the inherited Indian lands in Oklahoma and many other Indian reservations where the Indians desired to sell land.

Thus it will be seen that the representatives of the Department of the Interior and the Chief Executive of the tribe will oppose the removal of restrictions.

Opposed to this are what is known as the progressive element of Indians and the business men of the nation, including the white population.

ASSASSIN ATTACKS A DOCTOR.
Stranger Attempts to Stab Kansas City Physician.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 2.—An unidentified man tried to kill Doctor Herace C. Jones last night. Doctor Jones's office is in the Rookery building. Shortly after midnight last night, Doctor Jones was lying upon a couch reading. The knock on his office door rattled. Doctor Jones went to the door and threw it open.

Out of the darkness the doctor saw a hand raised, and the flash of a knife. He dodged out and back as the hand struck and the knife cut a slash in his forehead. The man ran across the lobby. As he did so Doctor Jones fired two shots at him.

Doctor Jones said last night: "I have not the slightest notion who the man was or who wishes to kill me. This man, whoever he was, tried to cut my throat. I suppose he will try it again."

THE above announcement is of upmost importance to the women of St. Louis. When you were still buying your last summer's underwear we were already contracting for these splendid garments for our January Sale. The success of our Muslin Underwear sales last May and June, and the competitionless values we were enabled to present then, prompted us to follow the same buying tactics employed at that time, which resulted to our mutual and absolute advantage.

We've again ransacked all the prominent American mills—purchased all their best mill-ends and short lengths of Muslin, Cambric, Nainsook, Laces, Embroideries, etc., exact qualities of materials and trimmings used in garments that will be shown at 13 more than our January Sale prices. These we had sent to two of New York's cleverest manufacturers with instructions to make them up in the very newest 1904 styles, when other work was slack. In this manner more time and care was devoted to their manufacture and at considerably less expense. Every garment in this sea of whiteness is cut full and wide and possesses a marked degree of style and finish such as seen only in the higher priced goods.
